

I would like for the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law to be upheld by the FCC. Since its inception, I have had zero annoying telemarketing calls at my home and work. I realize that these people need to make money, but I believe that it is incorrect for them to call people who are not on a list requesting information from them. Please uphold our Indiana Telephone Privacy Law.

Sincerely,
Michelle M. Ceden0